

There are 2.7 million cattle in Montana, making it the leading agricultural commodity in the state. That means there are about 3 cows for every human. Montana also has 18,000 dairy cows. Dairy farmers here produce enough milk to flood a football field 314 feet deep every year. That's a lot of milk!

USDA Farm Service Agency
An equal opportunity provider and employer.

www.fsa.usda.gov/fsakids