

Wyoming has more cattle than people, and lots and lots of sheep. In fact, it is ranked second in wool production and sheep breeding. Wyoming farmers grow hay, barley, wheat, dry edible beans, sugarbeets and corn. In size, farms and ranches in Wyoming are usually much larger than those in other states.

www.fsa.usda.gov/fsakids

USDA Farm Service Agency is an equal opportunity provider and employer.